

CALL FOR NATIVE MEDIA APPRENTICE
 nativeland.org

The Cultural Conservancy

2018/2019 Native Media Apprenticeship Opportunity

We are currently seeking applicants for a paid apprenticeship with our Native Media Program from November 2018 - August 2019.

This is a unique opportunity to work with digital media rooted in indigenous worldviews and processes centered around hands-on work including indigenous storytelling, video + film pre/post production, digital archives and community media trainings. The apprentice will have the opportunity to shape their experience by focusing on projects that speak to their strengths and interests, which allow them to contribute in shaping this apprenticeship in a meaningful way that creates a deeper well of knowledge and connection.

- 12/hrs per week for the nine months Nov 2018 - Aug 2019
- Monthly stipend
- Ages 18-32 - Native/Indigenous identified (American Indian/Alaska Native/Native Hawaiian)
- Click Here for full details and eligibility requirements

This apprenticeship will focus on documentary video, audio, and web content with Native voices and visions.

- Documentary video + film pre/post production + distribution
- Storytelling through web and social media
- Media library/archive design + implementation
- Community media trainings

Application Deadline - Monday October 15

To Apply: please send a cover letter, resume and work sample by Oct 15 to TCC's Mateo Hinojosa or visit our website for more details!

A special Thank You to our Media Program Funder

We look forward to hearing from you!

The Cultural Conservancy | www.nativeland.org

STAY CONNECTED

